

CBL International Oxford Summer Institute At Oriel College

JOIN OUR TEAM

(Summer 'Residential Advisor' student job)

During the months of July, August, and September we are running Oxford Summer Institute as an academic study abroad programme for college and university students from all over the world with a strong focus on delegates from the Far East. The programme is focusing in Oxford very much on courses in law, economics, business & management, philosophy, and English as a foreign language.

Who we are looking for

- We are looking for university students aged 20+, preferable JCR/MCR members of Oxford or Cambridge colleges, to support our Programme Directors by:
 - Taking care of student enquiries, working with all student groups participating in our summer programmes, be of help to all our participants
 - Take care of administrative tasks related to our summer programmes
 - Accompany student groups on excursions and take responsibility for spare time activities of all student groups
- You should be a quick learner and willing to give our delegates the best service.
- You should be good at interacting with people, preferably you have had experience working with summer programmes before

What we offer

- Work with an international group of students over the summer
- Nice working environment in Central Oxford or Central Cambridge
- Competitive Remuneration of 8 GBP per hour

Applications should be directed to administration@cbl-international.com, attention of Mr Simon Hayward, and should include:

- (1) Letter of motivation
- (2) CV including your academic history and work experience you might had working with academic (study abroad) programmes