

Newnham College Cambridge

Seminars on Career Women

Careers in the Media

Monday 28th April 2014, Principal's Lodge

Refreshments will be served from 5.30 pm for a 6 pm start.

If you have ever thought of aiming for a career in or associated with broadcasting or journalism come and hear four women working in various areas of the media discuss their careers - how they developed and the challenges overcome - questioned by Jane Ellison - Commissioning Editor, General Factual Programmes, BBC Radio 4

Our panel will comprise:

Ruth Levis – Producer, WW1 Centenary Online, BBC

Francine Stock – Radio & TV Presenter and author

Gillian Scothern – Head of Factual, Crackit Productions

Jo Tynan – Communications Officer, Newnham College

Please contact the Principal's Secretary for a free admission ticket: cb560@cam.ac.uk

Inspiring women to the top