

CBL International Oxford & Cambridge Summer Academy

Join our summer faculty

We are looking for faculty to lecture on our academic study abroad programme in the forthcoming summer of 2015. CBL International Education has been offering academic programmes all over the world for more than eight years. It has partnerships with Magdalene College, University of Cambridge (UK) and Oriel College, University of Oxford (UK) for the programmes in the UK. More than 2000 students from over 70 different countries have participated CBL International study abroad programmes.

This is open to MCR students who would like to teach a course (each course is a series of lectures over the period of one week) or give lectures on university application, interview techniques and various related topics. Delegates attending the Oxford and Cambridge Summer Academy are high-school students aged 16-18 from different nationalities, especially Australia, North America, Continental Europe, and Asia.

Courses will be offered in the following areas. However if you would like to offer a different course within the main subject areas please feel free to compile a short course description and include it to your application:

Business & Management

International Organisations

International Politics

History

Applications should be sent to Miss Elizabeth Wood at administration@cbl-international.com and should include:

- (1) Covering letter indicating the subjects you would be interested to teach and your availability in Cambridge from 5 July until 15 August 2015
- (2) CV including your academic history, teaching experience and an up to date short bio and photograph.

Application Deadline: (Latest) 7th February 2015
