Term Card: Easter 2022

Thursday 28 April 19:00-20:00 Tizard Room	CHUTalk The first CHUTalk of the term will be given by Giacomo Gattoni in the field of Evolutionary Biology.
Friday 29 April 16:00-23:00 MCR Bar and Grange Park	Churchill v Fitz Football Final Pre-drinks in the MCR followed by a trip down to Grange Park to support the Churchill Men's football team in their cup final vs Fitz. Kick-off at 19:00 at Grange Park.
Friday 29 April 20:15 Seminar Room 1	Iftar Iftar is the post sunset meal Muslims break fast with during Ramadan. It is a community meal and everyone is welcome. You can bring a meal from your culture to share on the table, or join us without one, to celebrate the diversity and community at Churchill. Iftar is at 8.24 pm on the 29th of April, please join us a few minutes prior so we can begin the meal together on time.
Saturday 30 April 18:00-19:00 Wolfson Hall	Super Short Summaries Churchill's very own two-minute thesis competition for Postgraduate students to present and learn about each other's work. The event will be followed by a drink reception and the Postgraduate Dinner.
Saturday 30 April 19:00-22:00 Dining Hall	Postgraduate Dinner 🍷 Formal hall (free!) organised by the Postgraduate Office for MCR members to catch up with each other and connect with fellows over dinner and drinks.
Tuesday 3 May 19:00-20:00 Jock Colville Hall	Termly General Meeting The MCR's Easter term meeting will include an open committee meeting and will discuss proposed changes to the MCR's Rules and Procedures.
Wednesday 4 May 19:00-20:00 Jock Colville Hall	Brainstorming: MCR Bar Refurbishing A brainstorming session to discuss ideas about how to organise and refurbish the MCR rooms.
Thursday 5 May 18:00-19:00 TBC	Yoga is back! Welfare yoga sessions are back on after the break. Come unwind after a day of classes, research, revisions or otherwise as we practise yoga. 🧘
Thursday 12 May 19:00-20:00 Tizard Room	CHUTalk The second CHUTalk of the term will be given by Viancqa Kurniawan in the field of Development Studies.

Saturday 14 May 19:30-01:00 TBC	Eurovision Watch Party Ciao Churchill! We'll be joining Turin in Italy for this year's edition of the biggest singing contest in the world, as your favourite European countries (+ more, incl. Australia!) compete to win, following Måneskin's success last year. Why not take a break from revision and dissertation writing to find out what wolves have to do with bananas*, why you should eat your veggies*, and if we'll have the sixth barefoot winner of Eurovision* (*subject to qualifying)? Will Sam Ryder will take the UK to the left side of the leader board for the first time since 2011? Cheer on your favourites as we watch the live broadcast from 8 pm onwards.
Saturday 21 May 12:00-15:00 River	Punting See Cambridge from the river as we take a trip punting down the River Cam.
Sunday 22 May 14:00 Outside	Wellness Tea, Arts, and Crafts Sunday afternoon tea, snacks, arts and crafts, and sports to relax during exam time! The event will be held outside at Churchill.
